

EDUCATION UPDATES

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS UNIT, MINISTRY OF EDUCATION
BRUNEI DARUSSALAM

ISSUE 89 | 31 OCTOBER 2020 | FLIPBOARD: LINK FOR ARTICLES

DONGSEON KIM/Shutterstock.com

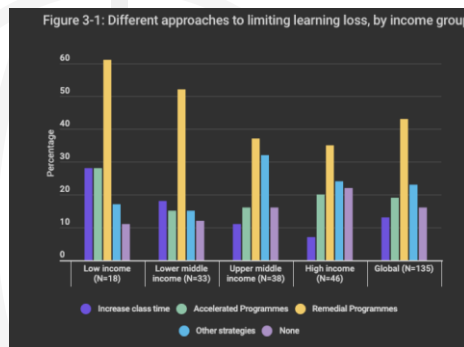

CONCEPT NOTE
AND AGENDA

HIGHLIGHTS

26 Oct [IBE UNESCO] Webinar: COVID-19 lessons and curriculum-related actions: The challenges for developing countries

The COVID-19 crisis reinvigorates the positioning of curriculum as an essential driver for social and educational inclusion as well as to ensure effective learning opportunities for all. LINK

29 Oct 2020 [UIS] UNESCO-UNICEF-World Bank Education Survey – Key Results (2nd Iteration) LINK

DIGITAL EDUCATION

IT Skills & Traditional Weavers | Cyber security | Threats | Education Data | etc.

≈ 10 Articles

REMAGINED EDUCATION

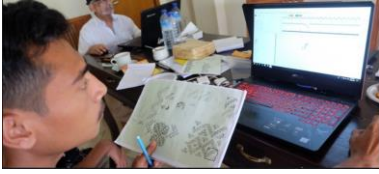

Curriculum | Resilience | Award Recipients | Skills | Open Science | SDG4 Review | etc.

≈ 15 Articles

COUNTRY\ REGIONAL NEWS

ASEAN | Sarawak | HK Security Law & Education | etc.

≈ 10 Articles

23 Oct 2020 (UNESCO Jakarta) Providing IT skills to the traditional weavers of Lombok, Indonesia

The traditional weavers from the villages of Pringgasele and Bayan, Lombok, Indonesia, has been learning the use of digital media to safeguard their intangible cultural heritage while tackling new market opportunities. LINK

26 Oct 2020 (Techwire Asia) India, Japan look to ASEAN to tighten continental cybersecurity co-op

A critical component of the five-year India-ASEAN Action Plan to address issues such as maritime cooperation, sustainable development, developing marine resources, connectivity in both physical and digital domains, and increasing people to people contact through initiatives such as health, education, and tourism. LINK

29 Oct 2020 (Edtech Magazine) The Biggest Cloud Threats to Remote Education — and How to Thwart Them

Cloud adoption is rapidly accelerating because of remote learning but it has also put a spotlight on new cybersecurity concerns. LINK

25 Oct 2020 (ASEAN Post) ASEAN's Digital Economy Not Growing Fast Enough

Strengthening the digital skills of ASEAN's population of 680 million people will ensure that opportunities and benefits reach everyone. Although the region already has good literacy and numeracy rates, education systems need to be more flexible in developing the skills needed to operate in a digital economy. LINK

27 Oct 2020 (Borneo Bulletin) Making a difference as educators

three teachers from Brunei Darussalam whose contribution in the teaching field has provided significant impact and gradually become factors to their students' success – have been honoured with Thailand's Princess Maha Chakri Award (PMCA). LINK

19 Nov 2020 (UNESCO Bangkok) Regional Online Launch: ESD for 2030 in Asia-Pacific

UNESCO has developed a new framework (2020-2030) to enhance the global efforts on ESD: Education for Sustainable Development: Towards achieving the SDGs. LINK

26 Oct 2020 (ASEAN Post) Reskill Today Or Lose Your Job Tomorrow?

In a report released this month titled, "Future of Jobs 2020," the WEF looked at how the crisis has impacted global labour markets with a real-time view into how global hiring has fared. LINK