

| M  | T  | W  | T  | F  | S  | S  |
|----|----|----|----|----|----|----|
|    |    |    |    |    |    | 1  |
| 2  | 3  | 4  | 5  | 6  | 7  | 8  |
| 9  | 10 | 11 | 12 | 13 | 14 | 15 |
| 16 | 17 | 18 | 19 | 20 | 21 | 22 |
| 23 | 24 | 25 | 26 | 27 | 28 | 29 |
| 30 | 31 |    |    |    |    |    |

SECTION: FEATURES

January 12 [Acer] Improving remote learning for students with disability. ACER and Catholic Schools NSW have identified strategies that contribute to inclusive learning experiences of students with disability during remote learning as well as upon returning to the physical classroom. LINK

January 16 [United Nations] Poorest learners benefit the least from public education: UNICEF. Governments are not investing enough in those children who need education the most, the UN Children's Fund (UNICEF) said in a report published on Tuesday, calling for equitable financing to combat "learning poverty". LINK

January 19 [United Nations] Afghan girls and women made focus of International Education Day: UNESCO. The agency announced on Thursday that it was dedicating the International Day of Education on 24 January, to the country's women and girls. "No country in the world should bar women and girls from receiving an education. Education is a universal human right that must be respected," said Director-General Audrey Azoulay. LINK

SECTION: SCHOOLS

January 10 [The74] Arts Education Program Increases School Engagement, Study Finds. As states like California spend billions to increase arts offerings, research shows the academic and social-emotional value of cultural education viewed as a necessity by many parents, but often crowded out of school budgets and instructional time — can boost students' writing skills and build empathy, according to a study published late last year. LINK

January 11 [The Gleaner] Special Education Centre to be Established in Santa Cruz. Special needs children in Santa Cruz and surrounding areas in St Elizabeth are to benefit from the establishment of a Special Education Centre. The undertaking is being facilitated through a partnership between the Ministry of Education and Youth and the Digicel Foundation for the renovation of the Santa Cruz Basic School to house the facility. LINK

January 18 [The Star] Appropriate attention will be given to disabled students, special education teachers, says Fadhlina. Students from the Persons with Disabilities (PwD) community and special education teachers will be given appropriate attention by the Education Ministry, says Fadhlina Sidek. LINK

January 20 [ANTARA News] Education paramount to realizing healthy school canteens. The Jakarta provincial government's aspiration to realize healthy canteens should indubitably receive the support of all stakeholders, given that children spend most of their time in schools. LINK

SECTION: TVET

January 12 [INDIA TV] Vocational training to introduce in 325 block-level model schools in Jharkhand. The Jharkhand Government is envisaging to introduce vocational training in 325 block-level model schools to provide employment-oriented education. LINK

January 19 [The Star] TVET could help reduce unemployment, say MEF. Employers preferring to hire newly graduated youth may cause the unemployment rate to snowball, says Malaysian Federation of Employers (MEF) president Datuk Dr Syed Hussain Syed Husman. LINK

SECTION: ED-TECH

January 17 [EdTech] FETC 2023: Technology Opens the Door to New Innovations in K-12 Education. The Future of Education Technology Conference invites administrators, IT leaders, educators, library media specialists and ed tech coaches to convene for four days of sharing and learning. LINK

SECTION: EARLY CHILDHOOD

January 12 [FOX56] Fayette schools launch campaign to improve early childhood education. Fayette County Schools are renewing its focus on early childhood education. It's a response to low test scores showing a majority of Lexington kids aren't ready to start kindergarten. LINK

January 16 [ANTARA News] Puspayoga highlights need for anti-violence education strategy. Minister of Women's Empowerment and Child Protection (PPPA) Bintang Puspayoga has emphasized the importance of developing an anti-violence education strategy for early childhood. LINK

SECTION: HIGHER EDUCATION

January 17 [Center for Data Innovation] Higher Education Will Have to Adapt to Generative AI—And That's a Good Thing. OpenAI recently launched a new large language model called ChatGPT that can generate original text—part of a brand of artificial intelligence (AI) known as “generative AI”—unleashing a barrage of panic, hype, and excitement. LINK

January 18 [PR Newswire] $6 Million Awarded to Expand Higher Education Programs Aimed at Student Success Beyond College Completion. Three-year grants awarded to four institutions will support expansion of programs designed to help learners succeed during and after completion of their degree or credential. LINK

SECTION: ENVIRONMENTAL

January 16 [News Medical & Life Sciences] Environmental education programs may be well-suited for linguistically diverse children. Participation in environmental education programs can motivate children across diverse language groups to act responsibly toward the environment, a recent study from North Carolina State University researchers suggests. LINK

January 17 [The Japan Times] Environment education that connects all the dots. Dire warnings about the impact of climate change and decades of failed efforts to halt global warming have galvanized the world's youth. Surveys reveal climate change is a top concern for many of them, and that members of Generation Z (those born after 1996) in particular want strong policies to deal with it. LINK

SECTION: STEM EDUCATION

January 13 [Seacoast Online] Schools to receive free access to STEM and computer science resources: Education news. To support educators, the New Hampshire Department of Education is providing schools with access to Learning Blade, the online STEM and Computer Science career platform that also offers professional development opportunities for teachers. LINK

January 20 [FE NEWS] Why STEM Education is key for a sustainable future. STEM represents a path on how we can harness the talent of the next generation of learners to become the future leaders capable of joining the green tech sector. LINK

SECTION: ENTREPRENEURSHIP EDUCATION

January 10 [European Commission] Launch of EIT Campus: better offer for entrepreneurial education. Today, the European Institute of Innovation & Technology (EIT) launches 'EIT Campus', a new initiative to ease access to its broad offer of education and training blending innovation with entrepreneurship. LINK

January 18 [K-12 Dive] How can schools foster an entrepreneurial mindset in students? Two educators shared their lessons learned in helping middle and high schoolers gain skills in areas like problem solving, teamwork and resilience. LINK

SECTION: OPINION

January 20 [U.S. News] Higher Ed Must Do More to Support Working Adults and Family Providers. As enrollment rates of working adults increase, higher education institutions must evolve and broaden their support systems. For the good of the economy, it is time for the sector to get creative in its support for those pursuing college credentials outside of the traditional full-time model. LINK

