

SECTION : FEATURES

THE WORLD RD + IDA

May 31 [The World Bank] Moldova to Improve the Quality of Education System and Provide Greater Refugee Support with World Bank Assistance. The World Bank's Board of Executive Directors approved today financing for the Education Quality Improvement Project (EQIP) in the amount of $40 million, which will help the country to improve the learning environment in participating institutions, with a specific focus on supporting disadvantaged students, while also strengthening the Ministry of Education and Research's capacity for sector management and assistance to refugees enrolled in educational institutions. LINK

May 31 [NATO] NATO's Partnership Training and Education Centres commit to supporting Ukraine. NATO's Partnership Training and Education Centres community will support Ukraine in its military education needs, including on cyber defence, energy security, demining and English language training. LINK

June 02 [UNESCO] UNESCO contributes to call for transformative approach for education in Southeast Asia. Experts from UNESCO contributed to the reflection on educational transformation in the Southeast Asian region, through an online forum that took place between 24-26 May. LINK

SECTION : INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

May 31 [CenLANow] LSUA celebrates additional funding for SPERO program, expanding inclusive education initiatives statewide. LSUA is excited to announce that the Postsecondary Inclusive Education Advisory Council has granted funding approval for expanding inclusive education programs at nine institutions across Louisiana. LINK

June 02 [Indiana Capital Chronicle] Special education 'choice' program accepting enrollments. A program funding disabled child access to private schools and other specialized resources is open for enrollment through September 1, State Treasurer Daniel Elliott's office announced Friday. LINK

SECTION : GREENING EDUCATION

May 31 [Breaking Latest News] A new proposal for environmental education in Cesar and Magdalena. The Prodeco Group assumed the commitment to promote a new form of environmental education in Cesar and Magdalena, with the purpose of transforming the environment into a development axis for the communities. LINK

June 03 [University World News] ABET partners UWN on education for sustainable development. ABET, the global accreditor of more than 4,000 college and university programmes, has agreed a three-year partnership with University World News (UWN) to support its coverage of higher education's contribution to the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). LINK

June 05 [The Educator] New program helps undergrad students tackle planetary emergency. The 2023 United Nations Climate Change report reveals a 1.1°C temperature rise over the past 200 years, largely driven by human activity. While this might not seem like a lot, even the slightest change in global temperatures can have devastating effects on the planet's ecosystems. LINK

SECTION : EDUCATION TECHNOLOGY

June 02 [Hindustan Times] UP students to learn advanced computing, AI, robotics at IIT Mandi. A group of 100 students and as many teachers left for Himachal Pradesh on June 2 for a month-long summer course starting June 5 under a skill development initiative. LINK

SECTION : CURRICULUM

May 31 [DC News Now] West Virginia STEM education program serving as a national model. A conference in the Nation's Capital today singled out West Virginia's STEM education program as a model for other states to follow. It's focus? Delivering healthcare to rural and underserved communities. LINK

June 02 [Sidney Daily News] Owl's Nest offers agricultural education curriculum. Differences Derek McCracken is a former ag teacher who wants to help current ag teachers with curriculum and planning. After graduating from Ohio State University in 2013, he taught ag ed for nine years before leaving to begin The Owl's Nest Services in Agricultural Education. LINK

June 02 [FE News] Why teaching schools about cybersecurity must be top priority. The education sector is becoming increasingly targeted by cyber attackers. Educational institutions often have relatively weaker cybersecurity measures compared to other sectors because they often have limited budgets and resources allocated to cybersecurity and coordinating and enforcing consistent cybersecurity measures across multiple departments can be challenging. LINK

SECTION : EARLY CHILDHOOD

May 31 [Mirage News] Transforming Early Education For Best Start In Life. More children and families will have greater and more affordable access to two years of quality kindergarten, with the Andrews Labor Government's continued investment in our once-in-a-generation Best Start, Best Life reforms. LINK

June 02 [BBC] Northern Ireland education: Planned cuts to early years programmes scrapped. Proposed cuts to a number of youth services and early years programmes will now not go ahead, the Department of Education has said. LINK

SECTION : PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

May 30 [Ministry of Education, Singapore] New Character and Citizenship Education Centre to Deepen Research in Pedagogy and Practice. To further Singapore's expertise and capabilities in Character and Citizenship Education (CCE), the Ministry of Education (MOE) and National Institute of Education (NIE) have jointly established the Singapore Centre for CCE. LINK

June 01 [PR Newswire] NTUC First Campus and SUSS Renew Partnership to Upskill Early Childhood Educators and Advance Early Childhood Sector. The new five-year agreement aims to equip early childhood educators with advanced teaching practices and leadership skills, empowering them to take on more strategic roles. LINK

SECTION : SCHOOLS

June 02 [Herald and News] Natural education: Klamath Outdoor Science School takes learning outdoors. School is in session this summer as Klamath Outdoor Science School (KOSS) preps for the return of residential summer programs. LINK

SECTION : POST-PANDEMIC EDUCATION

May 30 [BBC] Post-covid education support to be 'built upon'. The education minister has said it is important to continue with initiatives to help Jersey childrens' education after the Covid-19 pandemic. A report on recovering from loss of learning by the School Improvement and Advisory Service (SIAS) has been published, outlining progress made in 2022. LINK

SECTION : HIGHER EDUCATION

June 03 [University World News] This unique glocal partnership is leading the way on SDG 4. A partnership between a Canadian university and an Indian college which grants Indian students a Canadian work permit upon graduation offers an effective example of third-culture building and supports the idea of globalisation as a sustainable alternative to exploitative international higher education models. LINK

June 03 [Times of India] IIT Bombay launches WISE program to instil love of STEM along rural Indian girls. The Women in Science Engineering from Rural Parts of India (WiSE) program, launched by IIT Bombay, aims to inspire girls from rural India to pursue STEM careers. LINK