

SECTION : FEATURES

June 06 [UNESCO] UNESCO and Indonesia collaborate to make storybooks and math games available in 26 local languages. Following the success of the first phase of the Translate a Story campaign, UNESCO and the Global Digital Library (GDL), in cooperation with the Agency for Language Development and Cultivation (Badan Bahasa) from the Ministry of Education of Indonesia, jointly organized a translation workshop from 29 May to 2 June in the country's capital, Jakarta. LINK

SECTION : INCLUSIVE EDUCATION

June 05 [KUNM] Governor creates state's first Office of Special Education. Governor Michelle Lujan Grisham recently signed an executive order to create the Office of Special Education, which is the first of its kind in New Mexico. A special education advocate said there are a lot of gaps this office needs to fill and help families. LINK

June 07 [Mirage News] Best Education for Students with Disability. The Andrews Labor Government is supporting families and children living with disability, providing better access to the services young Victorians need to learn and succeed from the first day of their education to their very last. LINK

SECTION : GREENING EDUCATION

June 05 [Bradford Era] DEP announces funding for environmental education projects. The Pennsylvania Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) awarded a little over $1 million in 2022 Environmental Education Grant funding to 73 projects statewide, including 10 projects in the north central region. LINK

June 05 [RTL Today] Teaching the basics of sustainability through green education. Tom Haas, a 27-year-old advocate of sustainability, aims to impart knowledge about this crucial concept through his "environmental school" project, catering to both young and old. LINK

June 09 [Arab News] COP28 can be a catalyst for climate education in MENA. In the early years of the 21st century, humanity finds itself confronted with an unparalleled environmental predicament: an intensified greenhouse effect fueling global warming and precipitous alterations in the delicate fabric of the climate system. LINK

SECTION : STEM EDUCATION

June 07 [Warbird News] San Diego Air & Space Museum Unveiling New Innovative "Mission Control" Mobile Classroom. The San Diego Air & Space Museum is unveiling a new innovative and groundbreaking Mission Control mobile classroom which will dramatically increase the Museum's STEM outreach and programming and bring education to where the need is most critical in our local communities. LINK

June 07 [GOV.UK] Space funding boost for international partnerships and STEM education. The UK Space Agency has announced £6.6 million funding for a range of international science partnerships and STEM education projects at the opening of this year's Space Comm-Expo in Farnborough – one of the UK's largest space events. LINK

June 07 [Fox56] UK program promotes STEM education, inspires new educators. The subject of STEM (science, technology, engineering, and math) is all around us and educators are looking for unique ways to get young people involved in the field. Whether that be as current students or aspiring teachers. LINK

June 08 [The Verona Press] STEM mentoring builds relationships more powerful than technology. While a mentoring program between Savanna Oaks Middle School and Stoner Prairie Elementary School focuses on STEM (science, technology, engineering and math), the connections made between elementary and middle school students have proved far more powerful than the technology itself. LINK

SECTION : EARLY CHILDHOOD

June 06 [Mirage News] Language Program Connects Kids Globally And Locally. Connection to culture forms a key part of a child's understanding of the world – and the Andrews Labor Government is expanding access to language education for early learners to enrich their lives and their learning. LINK

June 08 [CBC] Ontario to boost early childhood educator wages in bid to ease staff shortage. Ontario is set to increase the wages of early childhood educators in a bid to boost recruitment and retention amid a staff shortage that advocates warn could hamper the growth of the national $10-a-day child-care program. LINK

June 08 [Jordan News] World Bank allocates $7.5 million to support education reform in Jordan. The World Bank has allocated $7.5 million as a new installment for a project aimed at supporting the reform of the education sector in Jordan. This allocation raises the total project payments, including loans and grants, to $200 million since its approval in 2017, Al-Mamalaka TV reported. LINK

SECTION : PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT

June 09 [Inquirer] Signing of IRR clears way for implementation of law improving teachers' training, education. The implementing rules and regulations (IRR) for a law seeking to improve the quality of education of students and training for teachers has been signed. LINK

SECTION : SCHOOLS

June 07 [Pajhwok Afghan News] Free education centre opened in Kabul's Bagrami district. Wazir Khan, the resident of Bagrami district in capital Kabul has opened a free of cost education centre for children. The education centre is exactly situated in the Fataihkehlo locality and according to Wazir Khan the children of the locality had no access to schools. LINK

June 08 [Mirage News] Building Relationships Key to Boost Nutrition Education in Underserved Schools. The US Department of Agriculture Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program-Education (SNAP-Ed) provides nutrition programming to individuals with low income, including students and their families, through a network of community partners who implement the programs. LINK

June 08 [UNESCO] World Oceans Day: a MasterClass on Ocean Education for 400 educators from all over the world. For the first time, the UNESCO Campus programme held an English MasterClass on Ocean Education, dedicated to teachers and educators from all over the world, on the occasion of World Oceans Day. LINK

June 09 [World Bank] How schools in Bangladesh emerged as more resilient after the COVID-19 pandemic? The COVID-19 pandemic has had a significant impact on education systems around the world, resulting in school closures and disrupting the education of millions of children. Bangladesh was no exception, with one of the longest school closures of 18-months. LINK

SECTION : EDUCATION TECHNOLOGY

June 06 [Moonshot] Unesco to launch policy for AI in education. Unesco is developing policy guidelines and frameworks for using generative AI in education. The plan is to launch the policy in September. The organisation says generative AI can "create data and content based on existing algorithm but can also make alarming factual mistakes". LINK

June 06 [UNESCO] UNESCO's Digital Transformation Collaborative prepares to support first countries. UNESCO brought together members of the Global Education Coalition and representatives from Member States to discuss next steps for the recently formed Digital Transformation Collaborative (DTC). LINK

June 09 [Asia News] Minister turns to AI classes to cool competition in education. Education Minister Lee Ju-ho said replacing paper-based textbooks with digital devices and AI-powered learning systems, is aimed at solving educational inequality and reducing the heavy reliance on private education. LINK