PART 2 PREVENTIVE MAINTENANCE

Preventive maintenance consists of regular inspection of the electrical and mechanical safety equipment, additional inspection and adjustment work on the entire installation, lubrication and cleaning.

Preventive maintenance carried out in accordance with the maintenance plan.

The contractor shall perform routine maintenance and examinations as are required to keep the elevator operating efficiently and safely.

Any legal requirements must also be complied.

The standards define the minimum requirements.

The contractor shall supply all lubricants and cleaning solvents.

Lubricants shall, as a minimum, be of a grade and quality equal to or better than that recommended by the original manufacturer.

The contractor shall maintain an adequate supply of spare parts for emergency service at all time.

The contractor shall at no time permit the operation/use of elevator while any of the safety devices, mechanical or electrical, are inoperative. The contractor shall lock out and tag out the equipment and immediately inform the S.O. & owner representatives.

The contractor shall maintain the cleanliness of the equipment and machine room floors, including any necessary painting due to damage caused by repairs.

PART 3 REPAIRS, PARTS REPLACEMENT AND OTHERS RELATED

REPAIRS
Only parts defined as spare parts are allowed to be replaced.
Other repairs are not allowed.

PARTS REPLACEMENT
Worn and / or defective safety components must be replaced by a new ORIGINAL spare parts only.
Non-OEM parts, modified parts or used components are STRICTLY not allowed.

LOGBOOK REGISTRATION
The replacement of a safety component must be registered in the logbook.
Any repair must be recorded accordingly in the logbook and a copy of the inspection report must be attached.

DISPOSAL OF MATERIAL
Lubricants, oils and other dangerous substances or materials which pollute the environment must be disposed in conformity with the regulations.
Parts, components and subsystems which are replaced during a repair must be disposed of in accordance with the legal requirements and to the agreement of Superintending Officer.

NOTICES
In cases where it becomes necessary to remove an elevator from service, a Bilingual notice clearly advising that the elevator is under maintenance shall be posted at each level/floor. These notices, approved by the owner and bearing the maintenance contractor's name, shall be of a permanent nature and capable of being reused at each shutdown.

Scheduled maintenance timetable should be displayed atleast two weeks prior to maintenance work.

SAFETY PRECAUTIONS
Before starting any maintenance work, precautions must be taken to eliminate the possibility of causing danger to person or property.
The safety component must be regularly maintained only by competent persons to ensure safe operation.
Only competent persons are authorised to do work on safety components such as adjustment, assembly, connection and maintenance including cleaning, lubrication, checks, repairs and reset after activation.

CLEANING
The areas to be cleaned are the inside of the car, floor coverings, carpet, car doors, landing doors, door frames, door grooves, push buttons, indicators, faceplates, tread plates, hoistway, pit area, car lining panels, threshold and landing door sills.

Cleaning agents containing strong solvents or abrasives are not allowed.
Contractor to use absorbent pads to collect oil leakage where required. Granular absorbent material will not be accepted.

RESTRICTED ACCESS
Only technically competent and / or trained persons are permitted to enter the hoistway.
Doors giving access to the drive control and to the hoistway must be locked at all times.

PART 4 CORRECTION OF FAULTS

Correction of faults includes the diagnosis and rectification of faults, as well as freeing of passengers in an emergency.

Fault correction does not usually require components to be replaced.

Correction of simple faults by trained persons includes the following tasks:

a) Inspect the grooves of the door sills where the car is standing and clean them if necessary.

b) Inspect the sensor and reflector openings for the light barrier or light curtain where the car is standing and clean them if necessary.

c) Check the condition of all control elements, on the car and on all landings and if necessary clean and return them to the correct position.

d) Check that all landing doors are completely closed and locked. If a door is not locked, the entrance must be closed off, the lift must be put to Out Of Service and the end-user must be notified.

e) In case of an emergency. Release, rescue and evacuate the trapped passengers.
The instruction notice of rescuing passengers should be displayed in the control cabinet.

The use of force and the bypassing of safety equipment or making it inactive is strictly forbidden.
